

CAMILE PAHWA SCHOLARSHIP FUND
APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS (APPLICATIONS DUE APRIL 15, 2019)

The Camile Pahwa Scholarship Fund was established in memory of Camile Pahwa, an extraordinary affordable housing advocate whose legacy remains steadfast through the funding of continuing education for children and young adults. The Camile Pahwa Scholarship Fund offers training and education grants for both children and adults living at any of the housing communities owned by DMA.

The grants may be used for:

- A. Tuition and expenses at any college or university. These scholarships are intended for high school seniors who have been accepted to a college, junior college, trade or vocational school. The maximum award is $1,000, per semester. (Use Form A)
- B. Continuing/Adult Education programs. These are intended for adult residents who either attend or desire to attend educational programs for the purpose of personal growth or improving career options. The maximum award is $500, per semester. (Use Form B)
- C. Camps for children. These are intended for dependent children of residents, age 8 to 17, and can be used for computer, art, music, athletic or other types of camps. The maximum award is $500. (Use Form C)

Notice to all applicants:

- 1. Applicants must complete the application form and submit all required documents by application deadline.
- 2. Grants are available to residents of DMA apartment communities and residents must be in good standing.
- 3. Grants are to be used for tuition, fees and books for any educational program, educational camp, accredited College, Junior College, Trade School, Vocational School or University.

Prospective applicants are urged to obtain and complete an application as soon as possible, as some items needed to accompany the application take time to prepare and assemble. Applications are available for download at <https://dmacompanies.com/about-us/dma-gives-back/> or you may obtain a hard copy from your property manager. Applications submitted after April 15, 2019 (or incomplete applications) will not be considered. Awards will be announced around May 1, 2019.

Submit one (1) copy of the completed application with attachments, to:

DMA

Attn: JoEllen Smith

4101 Parkstone Heights Dr. #310

Austin, Texas 78746

Or by email to: joellens@dmacompanies.com

After the completed applications have been reviewed by the Scholarship Committee and the winner(s) selected, notification to the winner(s) will be made by telephone and confirmed by award letter from The Camile Pahwa Foundation.

The Camile Pahwa Foundation grant will be paid to the designated school or directly to the applicant, at the discretion of the Committee. If recipient fails to use the entire award within the 2019/2020 school year, the funds will revert to the education fund of Camile Pahwa Foundation.

If there are questions regarding the application, contact your property manager or JoEllen Smith at (512) 328-3232, ext 4506.
